Dear Alobar Greywalker,

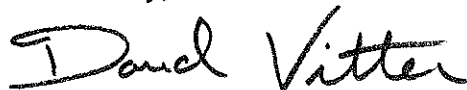

I am aware of your plan to picket my home this Friday afternoon over the New Orleans public housing issue, and I support your and every American's right to free speech and protest.

Having said this, I would point out two things regarding your Friday's plans: I will not be there (or even in town), nor will my staff; and my young children would normally be there and would naturally feel somewhat threatened and intimidated by the protest.

For these reasons, I would ask that your group either protest at my local office 2800 Veterans Blvd., Suite 201, Metairie 70002 or designate 5 of your representatives to meet with me within the next two weeks.

Please respond to this reasonable request at your earliest convenience to my State Director David Doss at 504-589-2753.

Sincerely,

David Vitter
